SCHOOL TRUSTEE APPOINTED.—Judge H. C. Allen has been appointed trustee of Schools, by the Town Council of Woodstock, in place of Geo. W. Atley, elected member of the council.

An ordinance prohibiting the firing of guns within the corporation lines is, we think, upon the statute books of the town council. If the law were rigidly enforced, the amount of fires would be greatly increased and in a short time the danger of being shot by a stray bullet would be greatly diminished.

MONEY ORDER POST OFFICES.—Edinburg has been made a Post Office Money Order Office. We are pleased that this increased facility for the transaction of business is now afforded to the people of Edinburg. New Market has also been established as a Post Office money order office. Having a bank, the money order office was not needed to the extent that it was in Edinburg.

SHOT IN THE FACE.—Some one had an air gun competition going on at Edinburg on the 4th at 5 cents a chance, and many of the visitors tried their skill at the bull's eye. Some one of them, however, who had more taste for another kind of eye lodged a charge in the cheek of a young son of Mr. Lewis Marston, inflicting a very painful, but not otherwise serious, wound.

AN IMPORTANT REQUEST.—In behalf of the one hundred and fifty little bare footed boys that run about the streets of Woodstock, we call attention to the practice of throwing pieces of glass, broken bottles, &c. on the streets. Serious accidents may occur and will be regretted by all parties. Please throw your broken glass, where it can not injure others.

I. N. Blosser, Esq., of this county, informs us that he sheared 46 pounds of wool from 3 merino bucks; 19 from one, 14 from another and 13 from the other. They are pure merino breed, and but one year old. If any body can beat this we would like to hear from them. Mr. B. offers to sell these bucks at $10 a head and obligate himself to pay $5 next year for the fleece of each one. —Page Courier.

Mothers save your children from torture and death by using Slinner's Indian Vermifuge. It will destroy and expel worms of every kind if used according to the directions. For sale by J. S. Irwin & Son.

ANKLE DISLOCATED.—John Burke, the auctioneer, met with a serious accident on Saturday evening last. He was passing through this town horseback, and was turning the corner at the engine house when his horse slipped on the large flat stones of the crossing and fell upon him. On raising him up it was discovered that the right ankle was dislocated and fractured, the bones being entirely out of their socket and protruding in a frightfully painful looking manner. He was taken to Mr. P. Hushour's, where he remained till Sunday evening, when he was taken home. Jack has the sympathies of many friends in his misfortune, and all hope to see him in the field of his labors by the next court-day.

SUN-STROKE.—During the delivery of Doctor Bennett's address at Edinburg, Capt. Middleberger, who was standing close by him, went down under a severe sun-stroke. He had walked from his home here to Edinburg, in order to be ready as marshal, on arrival of the train, and was thus continuously exposed to the hot sun from 5 o'clock A. M. to noon, when the heat entirely exhausted him. For more than an hour he was in a very critical condition but the prompt application of vigorous remedies and the good attention of physicians restored him sufficiently to ride in a carriage to the grove just before the dispersing of the assemblage. During Friday and Saturday following he was still quite sick, but is now beginning to appear as himself again.

NARROW ESCAPES.—On the return of the decorated wagon containing the little girls representing the States in the procession at Edinburg, on the Fourth of July, the pyramid, or central portion of the high seats gave way just as the wagon was turning to get on to the turnpike, precipitating the occupants to the ground—Fortunately, and almost miraculously, no serious injury was done. Two or three of the little innocents were scratched and bruised, but a few days of healing time will restore all the beauty which was marred. The wagon was sufficiently strong for the purpose, beyond all doubt, but during the day this pyramid was imprudently occupied by a number of men who amused themselves by shaking and straining it from side to side and thus, perhaps displaced or broke some of the stays or braces.

Health—the poor man's riches, the rich man's bliss—is found in Ayer's Medicines, after a fruitless search among other remedies. A word to the wise is sufficient.

The "Baby's Best Friend" is Dr. Bull's Baby Syrup, since it maintains the baby's health by keeping it free from colds, croup, etc. Price 25 cents per bottle.

The 4th at Edinburg.

An Old Time Celebration.

DEDICATION OF CEDARWOOD CEMETERY.

FIVE THOUSAND PEOPLE PRESENT.

The Fourth of July was celebrated by the people of this Valley in a very spirited manner at Edinburg. At an early hour, the roads were crowded with carriages, wagons, horsemen and footmen. About 9 o'clock A. M., excursion trains from Staunton and Harper's Ferry brought over 1500 citizens and soldiers to engage in the celebration of the Anniversary of American Independence, and to witness the impressive ceremonies at the dedication of Cedarwood Cemetery.

Under Capt. H. H. Middleberger as Chief Marshal, assisted by Capt. W. H. Rice, and Messrs. R. M. Lantz and Josiah Stickley a procession was formed in the following order:

Harrisonburg Band and Newtown Drum Corps;
Harrisonburg Guards under command of Capt. O. B. Roller,
Woodstock Band;
Anderson Guards of Woodstock, under command of Capt. J. W. Magruder.
A wagon tastefully decorated carrying a number of young ladies corresponding with the number of States. Each lady carried a small United States Flag. Above them was a beautiful banner upon one side of which was the motto: "No North, No South, No East, No West, The Union Forever." On the reverse side was inscribed "Fourth of July, 1878."

New Market Band, Masonic and other orders;
Stansburg Band.
Carriages containing Orators, Clergy, Representative in Congress, Speaker of the House of Delegates and other distinguished visitors.
Citizens generally.

The procession proceeded through several of the streets and marched to the center of the Cemetery, and around a beautiful statue, of Italian marble, representing "Hope." The statue is placed on a pedestal of line stone 14 feet high. The statue is the work of an Italian Artist and was brought from Italy to become the central ornament in this beautiful Cemetery.

The Exercises opened with Prayer, by Rev. G. G. Brooke, W. W. Bennett, D. D. President of Randolph Macon College, delivered an eloquent and appropriate address, in which he stated that the object of this great meeting was the consecration of the resting place of the dead. As it is the purpose of the committee to publish the speech in full, we will not anticipate by publishing extracts which could give but a faint idea of the beauties of this most appropriate address.

Immediately after the address, the statue was unveiled, while a choir of young ladies and gentlemen sang a beautiful piece of music, entitled, "Whispering Hope." The dedication service was read by Rev. P. Miller, Prayer was offered by Rev. G. Manzey, and the benediction pronounced by Elder Henry Jennings. The procession was at once reformed and proceeded to a neighboring grove where the Declaration of Independence was read by Gen. J. H. Williams and a patriotic and eloquent address was delivered by J. Liggett, Esq. of Harrisonburg.

A sumptuous dinner was served by Messrs. Geary, Murray & Co.
The crowd in attendance has been variously estimated from six to ten thousand. Many came provided with food and delicacies and the grove at dinner presented the appearance of a mammoth picnic. The weather was intensely hot and ice cream and lemonade were eagerly sought after by the panting multitude. The Bands furnished excellent music which added much to the interest of the occasion. The Winchester Light Infantry were expected and one of our county bands had been assigned a place in front of them. Edinburg certainly enjoyed an old time ante bellum celebration which notwithstanding all obstacles was in every respect a success.

EXCURSION TO WASHINGTON.—The B. & O. Railroad will run an excursion train from the Valley to Washington on Wednesday July 10th. Tickets will be good until Saturday July 13th. Capt. J. H. Averill will be in charge and will accompany the train to Washington. The following is the schedule and rates for round trip.

	A. M.	Rate.
New Market,	6:54	$4.00
Forest,	7:06	4.00
Edinburg,	7:16	3.50
Edinburg,	7:28	3.50
Woodstock,	7:53	3.50
Mauertown,	8:05	3.35
Tom's Brook,	8:10	3.35
Strasburg,	8:20	3.25
Capon Road,	8:25	3.15
Cedar Creek,	8:37	3.00

Large bills giving full particulars will be out in a few days. Parties who have never visited Washington can now do so at very cheap rates. They will have to visit all the places of interest in the city and go by steam boat to Alexandria and Mr. Vernon.

CAMP MEETING.—There will be a camp-meeting held under the auspices of the United Brethren in Christ, on the Old Camp Ground known as the Locust Grave Ground 3 miles west of Strasburg on the line of the B. & O. R. R. commencing August the 1st and continue until August 8th.

Special arrangements have been made with the R. R. Co. so that reduced rates will be allowed all attending camp, trains stopping daily at the ground. Also an excursion on Sabbath. Entertainment can be obtained upon the ground, as there will be a boarding tent, snack table and etc. under the control of the committee.

A cordial invitation to all interested.

Mr. Editor.

A thousand visitors, at least, go every year to see that wonderful curiosity. The natural bridge in Virginia.

The impression made upon their mind depends very much upon the manner and time of one's going.

The majority of those, who visit the bridge, go with an excursion party, and certainly fail to be impressed by the grandeur of this mighty work of nature. Their thoughts are, of necessity, distracted by the idle talk and silly doings of their pleasure, seeking associates. In an excursion party, there is always a goodly number of those, who care more for the pleasures of the bottle and the lunch-basket, than for the seven wonders of the world. A most all of the party will insist, that attention be given to their efforts to send their names down to future generations, engraved in the everlasting rock.

It is really surprising that people, who go to so much pains to engrave their names, at a place so much visited, never seem to reflect, that among such a mass of names and initials, constantly accumulating every year, their's could not be found, even if there ever should be any one who cared to look for it.

Then there is always the awkward man or woman of the excursion party, who is sure to sit gracefully down in the creek or do some other ridiculous thing, that effectually prevents the seriousness necessary to a perfect enjoyment of the grandeur exhibited in the mighty works of God.

Therefore it so frequently happens, that those who visit the natural bridge go away disappointed as to the impression made upon them. If you wish to visit this truly attractive place, try, by all means, to see it in the early morning, and see it alone.

Give all excursionists the slip, and go by yourself, and you will have a glorious opportunity to commence with nature in one of her grandest moods. There will be an impression made upon the mind that neither time nor change will obliterate.

Go in the month of May when the wild flowers are blooming. The delicate beauty of the many varieties of flowers, that grow at the bottom and along the sides of the chasm, will contrast sharply with the mighty grandeur of the uplifted rocks, and fill your soul with delight.

I visited the bridge, not long since, in company with a little girl, who had no idea of its appearance. I desired to see what effect it would have upon her. I kept her attention attracted from her surroundings, till we got in a position such that the bridge lifted itself right up before us and above us. The sun was shining under the bridge and threw the shadow on the side opposite to that on which we were standing. This made the arch and its supporting walls stand out more prominently in our front, and put on their most terrible appearance. Then I stopped and said to her. There is the bridge.

The effect was almost overwhelming. She would have sunk to the ground had I not been holding her. Her next impulse was to run away from the terrible place.

I have frequently seen the ceremony of baptisms by immersion performed both in the running streams and the consecrated pool.

It never seemed to me peculiarly solemn, I must confess. Nor do the crowds, generally attendant upon such occasions, appear to be much impressed by its solemnity. But, I think, if you shall ever see an immersion beneath the natural bridge, you will not soon forget the impressiveness of the scene. One can scarcely fail to feel himself in the very presence of the Almighty. The very awfulness of the surroundings gives a deeper meaning to the hymns and prayers and exhortations to duty.

Nature lends her grandeur to the simple ceremonial, and binds the heart into the attitude of prayer.

On last Monday evening Daniel T. Young of this town met with an accident which came near proving of a serious character. He was riding on a load of Hay and had nearly reached his stable, when from some cause it over turned and buried him beneath its weight. But for the prompt and vigorous efforts of several gentlemen who were near and who succeeded in extracting him, the result would doubtless have been quite serious. He was considerably shocked, in fact almost insensible, but at the time of writing this he is much better and it is thought his injuries are slight. —Page Courier.

AN ASTONISHING FACT.—A large proportion of the American people are to-day dying from the effects of Dyspepsia or disordered liver. The result of these diseases upon the masses of intelligent and valuable people is most alarming, making life actually a burden instead of a pleasant existence of enjoyment and usefulness as it ought to be. There is no good reason for this, if you will only throw aside prejudice and skepticism and take the advice of Druggists and your friends, and try one bottle of Green's August Flower. Your speedy relief is certain. Millions of people of this medicine have been given away to try its virtues, with satisfactory results in every case. You can buy a sample bottle for ten cents to try. Three doses will relieve the worst case. Positively sold by all Druggists on the Western Continent. For sale by Dr. D. D. Carter & B. Schmitt, Woodstock Va.

SCRATCH NO MORE—"ITCHING PILES," symptoms of which are moisture, like perspiration, intense itching, particularly when undressing or after getting warm in bed, increase by sweating, might think pin worms were crawling in and about the rectum, or sometimes shows itself around the private parts in a red, inflamed and sore in every case is "Swayne's Ointment." It allowed to continue, very serious results may follow. It also cures tetter, barbers' itch, scald head, ring worm, blotches, all scaly, crusty, itchy skin eruptions. Sent by mail to any address on receipt of price, 50 cents a box, or three boxes for $1.25. Sold by Dr. Swayne & Son, Philadelphia. Sold by all leading druggists. In Woodstock by Dr. D. D. CARTER.

DEATH OF CAPT. JACOB STOCKS-LAGER.

—We are this week called upon to record the death of this esteemed and well-known citizen, which occurred at his residence, in Heth township, on Friday night, the 31st ult., about 10 o'clock. Capt. Stockslager had long been known to the citizens of this county, and by them had been called upon to occupy important public trusts, which he discharged with honor and integrity.

Capt. Jacob Stockslager was born in Strasburg, Shenandoah county, Virginia, on the 23d day of June, 1796, and was consequently 81 years, 11 months and 9 days old. When he was some twenty-three years of age his father died, leaving him the oldest of nine children, and for several years he was compelled through love and filial duty to apply himself closely to his trade, that of shoe maker, to assist his widowed mother in the support of the large family then thrown upon him, and which he did with unremitting zeal. Devoted thus to his father's family, he remained in Virginia until the year 1837, during which time he was made Captain of the militia, which gained for him that familiar cognomen by which he was known as long as he lived. In the year 1837 Captain Stockslager moved to Indiana, and settled in Greenville, Floyd county, where he worked at his trade until the year 1840, when he moved to Hancock Harrison county Indiana, and engaged in the mercantile business, in which he was very successful and which business he continued only some three or four years when he purchased and moved to the farm some two miles north of that place, on which he resided until he died as above stated. Sometime in the year 1840 Capt. S., married Jane W. Newell, a sister of the late Mrs. Sarah C. Vance of this place. Mrs. Geo. W. Miller who is now living. The wife of Capt. S. still survives.

In 1856 Capt. Stockslager was elected Sheriff of Harrison county, and again re-elected in 1858 after which he retired from politics and devoted his time and energies to the cultivation of his farm and the education of his children. On account of poverty and the burden of supporting in early life his father's family he could not secure that education for himself he so much coveted and deemed so essential to the well being of individuals and society, but he determined that his children should not lack what it was possible for him to give them, of the children who survive, there is Capt. S. M. Stockslager, our present Senator for the counties of Harrison and Crawford. Hon. Thomas A. Stockslager, who is at present engaged in teaching school in Missouri, and Chas. O. Stockslager, one of the leading attorneys of Galena, Kansas.

Capt. Jacob Stockslager was a man full of energy, endowed with strong common sense, earnestly devoted to his friends, honest and upright in all his dealings with his fellow-men, and one who never shirked a responsibility that was thrown upon him, let it be ever so onerous. His life has been an active one in the sphere in which he moved—his deeds have been those of a Christian and philanthropist. He has gone to his reward full of years and full of honors, and our admiration for his many good qualities make us lament that he had not lived longer, and that there are not more in the world like him. —Corydon Ind. Dem.

BALTIMORE CATTLE MARKET.
MAY 8, 1878.

BEef CATTLE.—The quality of the offerings this week was better than of last week, and prices were 1 to 4 c lower than they were then. The market was dull throughout, no activity being observable in any of the lots at any time, owing to the extremely hot and sultry character of the weather. We quote at 2 75 a 50 per 100 lbs. few selling at 2 00 and 2 25.

MILK COWS.—Trade has been very dull, few sales being effected, and those at unchanged prices at 25 to 30 per head, few at the latter price. GRASS CATTLE.—We quote at 47 to 50 cents generally, as first quality 4 50 a 5 75; medium or good fair quality 3 75 a 4 25; ordinary quality 3 00 a 3 50. Wool.—The market was generally average of market this week—extreme range of prices 2 10 a 2 50. Stocks.—The market was generally average of market this week—extreme range of prices 2 10 a 2 50. Butter.—The market was generally average of market this week—extreme range of prices 2 10 a 2 50. Eggs.—The market was generally average of market this week—extreme range of prices 2 10 a 2 50.
